

Dear Drupgyu Anthony Chapman,
Director of Contemplative Scholarship,

It is my honor to recommend James Wagner for the three-year retreat.

I have known James for over 35 years. He is an inspired practitioner and a steady student of the dharma. He is also very appreciated as a teacher at the Shambhala Center. He is generous and tender and is reputed for his great sense of humor.

We also know James as generous for sharing his artistic talents, as well as his technological knowledge. He is an important and precious member of the Montréal Shambhala community.

I highly recommend James for the retreat.
Many will benefit from his practice,

Yours sincerely,
Gisèle Laberge
Senior Buddhist and Shambhala teacher.
