

My current financial situation allows me to do 2 more years of retreat, based on the assumption that a single year would cost around £6000.

My intention is to continue the retreat for as long as possible, but we are currently not clear how many years the retreat will be. It may well be that Drupon Rinpoche will follow the retreat program that he does in his retreat centre in Nepal and which lasts 6 years.

Having completed year 1, and having enough funds for years 1 and 2, I would need support only from year 4 (which starts in November 2018).
