I wish to recommend Ron Zambetti for a scholarship for a 3 year retreat. I've been Ron's spiritual friend for a very long time. I have seen him go through ups and downs in his life, but his commitment to practice and his tenacity have always been strong.

Ron's experience in his practice of psychotherapy gives him a head start facing the internal challenges posed by retreat and I think his motivation to successfully complete the drubdra will be very strong.

I think he is well deserving of support in his wish to complete the retreat and should be carefully considered for a Tsadra Scholarship.

Thanks for your consideration.

Sincerely,
Sat Tara S. Khalsa
